Dear Red,

Thank you for your kind letter and your interest in answering my questions relative to my son David.

David surprised us by coming over here this summer, and he plans to return to the States the week of August 4th, since he has an appointment with Uncle Sam at Fort Sill on August 10th. He plans to return by MATS, and since he is a Reserve Officer he is only entitled to travel on a space available basis, it makes the exact date of his return rather uncertain.

He filled out the appropriate forms which were given to him by Mr. Z, and mailed them to him in Philadelphia on the 19th.

25X1A9a He would like, if possible, and if his application merits, an opportunity for an interview before he goes to Fort Sill, and to this end I have taken the liberty of suggesting he telephone either you or [redacted] upon his arrival in New York, to see if such an interview could be set up on such short notice. Since he will be at Sill for six months, or until February 10th, he probably will not return to the east coast again until that time.

Sincerely,
